Conflict of Interest

- P&C Association members must declare interests which a conflict, either perceived or actual, with your P&C Association duties and activities that might benefit the private interest of a member/s of the P&C Association.
- P&C Association members must always act in the best interest of the P&C Association and adopt a process to disclose and address the potential conflicts.
- A conflict of interest may include, but is not limited to, existing individual interests or a benefit, professional ethics, personal or professional relationships, financial or proprietary interests. A few examples of Conflict of Interest:

Example 1

Personal or Financial Interest: Joe, an Office Bearer of a P&C Association owns a Building & Maintenance Company. During the P&C Association meeting, he recommends his company for an upcoming building work the P&C Association is considering to undertake as he believes he can offer the best competitive price being in the building business. However, he does not disclose the ownership of the company. Does Joe have a Conflict of Interest?

Yes. It is Joe's duty to act in the best interest of the P&C Association and not his own interests. To promote the profit interest of his own company and receive remuneration is contrary to his role and responsibilities as an Office Bearer of a P&C Association as stated in clause 5 of the Standard and the Prescribed Constitution. There is clear Conflict of Interest as Joe failed to disclose his personal business interests for gaining an undisclosed profit.

Example 2

Non-Financial Interest involving some close relationships (not limited to partners, family and friends): Vicky, a Canteen Manager of a P&C Association, suggested at a P&C meeting, an online fresh fruits and vegetables vendor she knew could offer a more competitive price than the existing supplier. She discloses that her son works as a delivery driver for the vendor. Is there a Conflict of Interest?

Yes. Indirect and or direct employment of an immediate family member, friend or a close acquaintance is a conflict of interest. In this case, there is a clear indirect financial gain as her son will benefit from the extra work.

Conflict of Interest Disclosure

- Where a Conflict of Interest has been identified, it is expected that the conflict must be brought to the attention of the Office Bearers and the members, and be disclosed or addressed in a meeting.
- Breaching and/or violating the Conflict of Interest may result in removal from the P&C Association in line with Code of Conduct policy.

How to deal with a Conflict of Interest

- Identified Conflict of Interest must be carefully managed by impartial decision-makers, who are not involved in the conflict.
- Minutes of meetings should reflect how the conflict was raised, addressed and managed; and the outcome be disclosed to all members.
- The person(s) with the Conflict of Interest may be refrained from participating in all formal or informal discussion, debate and voting; and their duties be re-assigned until a resolution has been found.
- The person(s) with the Conflict of Interest may be restricted to access confidential information and sensitive documents relating to the conflict of interest.
- In the event where a Conflict of Interest is very significant and prevents the person(s) with the Conflict of Interest to perform their role and responsibilities, the P&C Association may ask that the person(s) involved with the conflict relinquish their personal interest that creates the conflict and/or resign from their P&C Association role.

Privacy and Confidentiality

- P&C Association must adhere to the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act of 1988.
- P&C Association must recognise that the privacy of any individual's personal identifiable information must not be divulged or shared under any circumstances without the individual's written consent within or outside the P&C Association, unless there is a lawful authority for its disclosure.
